a. I reported to the Director that the Bureau of the Budget felt that it should be his responsibility to initiate action on a community-wide basis to correct the Department of State insecure pouch service. I also undertook to prepare a briefing paper for him.

b. During the discussion concerning the sending of certain radio broadcasting equipment to [REDACTED], [REDACTED] said that he had been advocating for several years that we develop a highly mobile high-powered transmitter but that [REDACTED] had said that this could not be done. It was agreed that Mr. [REDACTED] would look into this once again and I have alerted [REDACTED] Office of Communications, to this situation.

2. [REDACTED] buzzed to say that the Director had seen [REDACTED] for about twenty-five minutes and that he was present during the interview. [REDACTED] is going on two-weeks active duty with the Army on Saturday and has not yet decided whether he will resign. The Director told him to think it over during his two-weeks active duty and to let us know upon his return. I have instructed [REDACTED] to insure that he is terminated if he refuses to resign when he returns.

3. Shef Edwards telephoned and I briefed him on the Director's action concerning the [REDACTED] case. He said that [REDACTED] had talked to him about it and [REDACTED] wanted to set up a meeting when Kirk returned to consider changes in our regulations. I told him that I had no objection to the meeting and would like to participate in it.
